Save the Date - Friday, August 25,
Shabbat in the Shade at BHBE.

Shabbat in the Shade is cousins with Shabbat Kiddush and so we need your help. I know we will have a great cohort of volunteer workers, but we still need a larger maintenance and serving staff to help setup, break down, clean up and possibly help grill too. And of course, the price of kosher food is ridiculous but that's who we are and we want to have enough for all. So please, if you can, become an "angel" to help support this fun event 5:15pm Family activities - fun for all ages! 6pm Kabbalat Shabbat Services, Dinner to follow. Adults $18, children 13 and up $18, children under 13 free, max cost per family $54. Deadline to register: Friday, August 18.

As we begin to prepare our Yizkor Memorial Book for this year's Yom Kippur Service, we will once again be expanding and enhancing the book with written reflections and poems along with the names of your loved ones. We hope our Yizkor Memorial Book will be a source of meaning and comfort to you as we recall all those special people in our lives who are no longer with us but always in our hearts. As we have done before, the names from our memorial plaques will also be included in the book. There is no need to add them separately. As we give tzedakah in the memory of our departed, please consider an increased donation as the cost to publish this enhanced book has increased. We are hoping that the articles and poems will give you solace and you will want to read and reread them. May the memories of your loved ones be for a blessing. Forms are located in the Thursday BHBE News and on the Shabbat table outside of the Chapel and Sanctuary. There is a suggested donation of $18 per name.

Help cement the future for years to come by contributing to the L'dor V'dor Brick Project.

Please call the office for more details.

Please spread the word to family and friends who are not members of BHBE! You can join us for the high holidays for $250/person. If you subsequently decide to join, we'll credit your membership with the amount you paid for the high holidays. Contact our Executive Director, Michael Kahn at michael.kahn@bhbe.org or 847-256-6494 with any questions.

Social Action Committee: Family Promise / Backpacks
BHBE, through its Social Action Committee, is among the area congregations helping Family Promise Chicago North Shore. Family Promise helps homeless families get back on their feet and find stable housing. Its website is, <https://www.familypromisechicagons.org/>
Family Promise is assisting its families prepare for the new school year, and requests backpacks for its current and former families. It would like to take this small expense off their shoulders. If you are able to purchase any backpacks for elementary through high school students, please drop them off or have them delivered to the Day Center (1417 Hinman Ave. Evanston, IL 60201) under Family Promise or in the name of its Executive Director, Tracy McKeithen. Family Promise only needs backpacks because it received a donation of school supplies (pencils, paper, notebooks etc.) from the State Board of Education. If you have questions about Family Promise or BHBE's Social Action Committee, please contact Jeff Roth (rothkauf386@gmail.com) or Marc Primack (marcprimack@gmail.com). Thank you.
